Report on career counselling session with LIC December

13, 2025

Career counselling session with LIC was organized by career counselling sub-committee in collaboration with IQAC, Government Girls' General Degree College on December 13, 2025. Mr. Suman Majumder, Development Officer, LIC, talked about the Mahila Career Agent Scheme launched by LIC to empower women seeking financial independence. He spoke at length about the benefits of being enrolled in this programme. He said that they would receive a fixed stipend for the first three years, alongside commissions earned from policy, thereby ensuring a stable income. He further mentioned about LIC providing structured training sessions to help agents develop the skills needed to succeed. 38 participants including students, teachers and resource persons attended the programme.
